Vol. 6 - Issue 7 - JULY 2018

Coming This Fall

Beginning this Fall we will have a "Weekday Prayer Meeting". This time of prayer and Bible Study will be held at 10:00am each Wednesday morning. Fashioned after the traditional "prayer meeting" format, we will pray together then share in a Bible study led by Bro. Jon. It is our desire to reach those who find it difficult to attend an evening service or would like another opportunity for prayer and study in addition to the ones already offered. We hope you will join us beginning Wednesday, September 5th at 10:00am in the Carpeted Area.

Refresh Worship will continue to be our emphasis on Wednesday Nights this Fall. We will use this time to focus on testimonies of church family as well as authentic worship led by Steve and our praise team. When we do not have testimonies, Bro. Jon will teach a Bible study on Christian living to encourage our faith as we strive every day to Glorify God and connect to followers by making disciples who will impact our culture with the Gospel. We hope you will come be Refreshed with our mid-week worship.

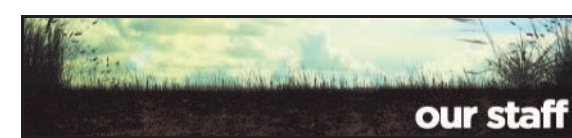

A church that takes The Great Commission seriously is in a continual state of attempting to "make disciples". The foundation of our discipleship process is the critical element of the intimate personal bible study of believers. This personal study leads to a second critical aspect of our making disciples. We believe that every disciple should be a part of a D-Group (Disciple-Group). A D-Group is a gender exclusive group of up to 12 people who meet together for 6-12 months. These groups meet to share together the discipleship journey in which we all share. D-Groups are founded upon disciplines that are imperative for making disciples. These disciplines include: Praying Continuously, Reading/Journaling Daily, Memorizing Scripture Weekly, and Relying on the Spirit to lead.
